

Astrology readings ~ with Merlin, Elijah & Dr Gary

(Yes, that cast of characters is all one and the same person)

I'm writing to offer you assistance in these tumultuous, uncertain times we have all been suddenly thrown into - so you can move forward in your life with fresh clarity, focus and inspiration.

How can I be of greatest assistance to you I? With some spot-on illuminating online astrology readings I can prepare for you, I offer both natal and dynamic 12 month forecasts which are easily sent via email. As many of our lives have been disrupted financially at this time, I'm also happy to reduce the fee from what I ordinarily charge, and offer my support on a sliding scale.

If, after receiving these readings, you'd like to have any questions answered that may come up from these readings, I'd be happy to organise some "face-to-face" time with me on Facebook Messenger or Zoom or Skype video, and offer you specific guidance on navigating through challenging themes in your life, as well as provide counselling, coaching and support in my other capacity as a transformational therapist.

3 types of readings are available:

1) a NATAL reading provides you with inspirational insights about key strengths, themes and challenges throughout your life ~ especially good at pivotal times in your journey where deep reflection is called upon to review your priorities and what directions to move in that are most aligned with your true purpose. An enduring gift, you'll enjoy re-visiting this reading over many years — as lessons are learned, and creative gifts and unique strengths revealed. You'll also find here all kinds of fresh perspectives on situations and problems you haven't been able to understand fully or solve until now.

2) one year DYNAMIC FORECASTS that pinpoint windows of time describing key influences. You'll know when and how to take action with current crises and opportunities, make clearer decisions and gain wisdom around passing patterns that affect your daily behaviour – enhancing your ability to be successful, fulfilled and in alignment with your most passionate purpose.

This twelve month forecast illuminates optimal periods of time for making specific actions - including awakening new ways to express yourself creatively, identifying best times to do things like write a book and take time alone for writing and reflection, clarifying when it would be ideal to reach out and contact people in new circles, or best times to connect with existing or new friends and associations. By coordinating the timing for influences that affect you the most with your online Calendar, you'll have so much more clarity and better decision-making on a day-to-day basis.

To get the most out of the dynamic forecast, copy and paste the info you resonate with along with the period of time this theme is activated and paste into your Google calendar or whatever electronic version you use for your daily appointments and task - repeating the entry for as many days or weeks as the transit continues for...Then you'll receive a reminder of what to look out for every time you open your calendar, like having a preview of your emotional and mental weather for that day.

3) If you're in a close relationship and want to find ways to improve the quality of your connection and communication, a "SYNASTRY" reading is recommended. This provides great information on how to improve your relationship ~ highlighting specific ways you not only connect well, yet also identifying specific challenges to overcome, and giving practical advice as to how to do that together - in thought, word and deed.

After you've read these readings, and noted any queries that come up from taking in the myriad of in-depth insights, I'd be happy to assist you further, as I've mentioned above.

Customarily, I charge $50/reading and $150/hour for my coaching, counselling and therapy. If you can afford this, great! I appreciate your support. If you're financially challenged right now, I welcome you giving what you feel, in your heart-of hearts, is equal to value of these readings and my one-on-one live support, and what you can afford. I will leave the amount up to you.

Moving forward, let me know which of the readings you'd like, and whether you'd like a complimentary 15 minute follow-up phone call or longer video or phone support call.

Once you select your choice of reading(s), I'll send you my account details, so you can make a deposit to cover the cost we agree upon. Then I'll prepare the reading(s) for you and send them to your preferred email address. The info I need is your first name and surname as you'd like these to appear, along with their time (if you know it), date and location of your birth, and the city or closest main city to where you were born.

Grateful to have this opportunity to make a difference in your life,

Merlin, Elijah & Dr Gary
